 Vodnjan

 435,200 €
31 €/m²

Vodnjan is located in southern Istria, ten kilometers north of Pula. Vodnjan has been known since ancient times for its narrow stone streets and the place where churches were built in the romantic and Gothic style. Vodnjan and the surrounding villages have a special charm and a more peaceful way of life, and yet people are more engaged in agriculture and livestock. It is located on a hill and has a beautiful view of the Brijuni Islands, which certainly contributes to the quality of olive growth and the quality of olive oil production, because this area is famous for its production.

Attractive land for sale in a quiet location on a slightly sloping terrain with a total area of 13,979m² with raspberries that are about 20 years old and there are 200 of them, neatly maintained and cut with love. On the land we also have planted fruit trees, 10 figs, 6 jujubes, oleanders, cherries, cypresses, lavender and some other decorative Mediterranean plants that grow successfully because we have tap water on the land. The plot has an entrance on two sides, an access road directly from the asphalt road and one public access road from the upper side of the plot. The entire plot is fenced with a dry stone wall 300m long, 140 cm high and 40 cm deep. The wall gives additional privacy and rustic charm to the entire plot. On the land there is also a corner for relaxing and preparing food, so the owner, with a lot of love, time and attention, built a fireplace, a bread oven and a canopy with a large wooden table, which is extremely good for socializing and necessary in the summer months because it provides us with shade and a place to rest. The small kažun (traditional wooden hut) located on the plot itself somewhere in the middle of the plot also gives the plot a special charm. Water is also located on the land itself.

The aforementioned land is in an extremely quiet location and is certainly worth a look because it provides the spaciousness, intimacy and peace that is needed for everyone to have their own space to relax in this wonderful location that is only about 10 kilometers away from attractive locations. The road connections to the location are getting better and better, so the distance of this land certainly has its charms.
